The Guts (Jimmy Rabbitte, #2) by Roddy Doyle

Roddy Doyle can make words smash through walls and write brilliant dialogue. He's also funny. This had funny dialogue, and I thought the topic was interesting. I felt it was a bit forced though. A bit of dad rocker about it. The words held strength at times, but

Roddy Doyle : NPR

If you are not familiar w/ the work of Roddy Doyle "The Guts" is as good a place to start as any, although for the sake of continuity I'd strongly recommend "The Barrytown Trilogy" I can't recall the last book that made me laugh out loud in public when I read it, but it was probably another Roddy Doyle book, the man has a way w/ words, a modern day Irish Shakespeare!!!

Book Review: 'The Guts,' by
Roddy Doyle : NPR

The feat of The Guts is Doyle's ability to create in Jimmy a character who hangs together even while so many of his certainties have collapsed. And to get a few good jokes in as well.
